CANADIAN PACIFIC "Empress" Express Route to Europe

Via Quebec and the St. Lawrence

Only Four Days on Atlantic to

CHERBOURG-SOUTHAMPTON-HAMBURG

Old French Canada Montreal and Quebec are the ports for the St. Lawrence route to Europe and Great Britain. Montreal, the largest inland port in the world, with its historic Chateau Ramezay and alluring side trips.

Quebec, the "Gibraltar of America," with its Citadel, its plains of Abraham and memories of Wolfe and Montcalm, with its old-world French quaintness and charm, and palatial Chateau Frontenac.

Down the St. Lawrence—the broad highway traveled by La Salle, Cartier and Champlain, pioneering adventurers from the old world—with the beauties of primeval forest and rocky cliffs on either hand, the shores dotted with thriving hamlets and busy towns.

Then the broad expanse of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, past Anticosti, the Magdalen, Cape Breton Island and Newfoundland to the open sea.

A Fresh-Water, Salt-Water Journey. An "inland voyage" followed by four glorious days on the Atlantic. A fresh-water, salt-water journey on board one of the large finely appointed "Empress" liners from Quebec to Cherbourg, Southampton and Hamburg.
